

Dr. Bair Is Recognition Day Speaker

Student Officers Installed;
"Gristmill" and Senior
Gift Presented

The annual Shaker Recognition Day was observed yesterday, May 26. The high point of the program was Superintendent Bair's inspiring address, his last to the Shaker Senior High School student body as a whole. Phil Knesal gave his farewell talk as the retiring president and next year's student council officers were installed. Bob Colquhoun is the president; Lester Mitchell, vice president; and Mary Louise Howes, secretary.

Robert Bingham presented the first copy of the "Gristmill" for the acceptance of the school.

The Senior class gift was next offered to the school by senior president Harvey Neville. The gift is a rostrum or speaker's stand. Those on the senior gift committee were: Betsy Day, Harvey Neville, Ted Olson, Ned Kuenhold, Norman Klivans, and Bill Coleman.

Phil Knesal was awarded the Citizenship medal. Alan Dill eulogized the senior class, and Jane Osterland played two harp solos.

Summer School To Start June 8

Moreland Principal to Be in Charge; Students Must
Register by June 5

The summer school at Shaker High will be in session for six weeks from June 8 to July 17. All students who wish to attend should have the required blanks filled out by June 5.

Charles A. Thornton, Principal of Moreland School, will be director of all the summer activities, including the recreation program, which provides principally swimming and tennis for high school students. Activity fee cards are $1.00 per week or $8.00 for the term of eight weeks; they include swimming twice a week—any weekday afternoon, 1:30 to 3:00, or Monday, Wednesday, or Friday evenings—and the use of the tennis courts five days a week until 5:00 p. m., with two group lessons under Phil Greenstein, prominent local professional, at the Senior high courts. Boys who wish to play baseball under the supervision of Alva Hatch, teacher at the junior high, may also include this activity in their fee cards.

The regular high school courses to be offered will depend on the number of students signing up for each one.

Mr. Thornton was also in charge of the summer session at the high school last year.

Operetta Adds To Stage Fund

The four performances of Pinafore, given recently by the A Cappella Choir for the benefit of the Miriam Kerruish Stage Scholarship Fund, resulted in the net collection of approximately $1300 which will be used to aid worthy Shaker graduates in their search for greater knowledge.

The record of the funds gained from ticket sales in the Shaker Heights school system is as follows:

Schools	Operetta
Lomond	$ 25.80
Moreland	30.25
Fernway	23.50
Boulevard	16.07
Ludlow	14.60

Select Shaker Girl For Lead in Movie

Vivienne Dworkin was selected from 3000 Greater Cleveland high school pupils as a lead in the all-student movie "It Happened in Cleveland." Application for roles was sponsored by the Cleveland Press. After a series of photographic and voice tests, Vivienne was given a speaking part which ranks among the first eight. This "short," which is the story of a high school romance, was made Saturday and Sunday, May 9 and 10, and is to be shown at Loew's State.

Vivienne, who is well known to Shaker schools for her dramatic ability, will not receive any recompense for her work, but only the satisfaction of having covered at least one milestone in her hoped-for dramatic career.

Graduating Seniors to Get Their Diplomas on June 3

President of Case to Be Speaker; Dr. Bair Will Preside at Exercises; Choir, Orchestra to Furnish Music

In the Shaker High School auditorium June 3, at 8 p. m., the class of '36, composed of 277 students, will be presented their diplomas by Mrs. Charles H. Day, a member of the School Board.

The speaker for the evening is to be Dr. William Wickenden, president of Case School of Applied Science. Superintendent Bair will preside at the exercises and Mr. Patin will present the the graduates, of whom there are 151 girls and 126 boys.

Civic Groups Fete Dr. Bair

In the open air court of the Shaker High School, a farewell reception for Mr. and Mrs. Bair was given last Sunday by twelve civic organizations of Shaker Heights. A silver tea set, a gift of the community, was presented by Dr. Winfred G. Leutner, president of Western Reserve University, and Mrs. Mae McLaren, principal of Boulevard School. Some of the organizations represented were the Shaker school board, the Parent-Teachers Associations, and the Shaker Teachers Association. The tea was open to all Shaker residents.

A dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Bair was held in the high school cafeteria May 15. More than three hundred teachers and employees of the Shaker school system attended. They presented a world globe and a lovely lace tablecloth to the Bairs.

Hold Annual Travel Club Party in Cafe

The annual Travel Club gala party was held last Wednesday, May 20, in the cafeteria, which represented the "Kursaal," of an outdoor concert garden, in Zurich, Switzerland. Marcel Salzinger, father of former Shaker Heights students and a noted Cleveland vocal instructor, brought students who sang in French, German, and English. Michael Levin, Phil Peters, Wallace Frye, Jim Bardrof, and Paul Larer contributed to the instrumental part of the program. Blanche Trubica and Jane Braithwaite added to the entertainment with their dancing. Ample and artistic refreshments were served on the numerous bridge tables. Mr. Main helped with the realistic decorations.

Aiding Mrs. Smith with the successful arrangements were Jeanne Sackett, Margaret Van Aken, Rhea Day, Jean Salisbury, Bob Schear, Charles Smith, Joy Warren, Jane Watkins, Dan Wedow, Marion Bailey, Ruth Van Aken, Ruth Thompson, and Polly Meriam.

The senior members of the A Cappella Choir are to render several musical selections. The processional and recessional will be played by the orchestra.

There will be two practices, next Monday and Tuesday, June 1 and June 2, at 10 a. m., where the pupils will learn their order of marching, which is to be according to height.

The graduating girls are to wear white caps and gowns while the boys will be attired similarly in dark blue. Because of a recent vote taken among the senior girls, no flowers will be carried.

Owing to the size of the class only three admission tickets, instead of the customary four, will be given to each graduate.

Seven Students Win Scholarships

Ohio Campuses Draw Majority
Of Class; Some to Attend
Eastern Colleges

Seven students of the 1936 graduating class have been awarded scholarships. Philip Knesal, president of the student council, gained one to Brown University, while Hope Griswold, vice president, won a scholarship to Swarthmore. Miles Ryan has been awarded one to Western Reserve University and Benita Blair to Barnard College, Columbia University. An Amherst scholarship has been given to Jerry Dougan. Jane Braithwaite has won a Baldwin-Wallace scholarship, while a Colgate scholarship has been awarded Cary Alburn.

Ohio campuses will draw the majority of the 277 graduating students with 17 planning to attend Case, 10, Western Reserve, and 5 the Cleveland School of Art. 15 students are trying for Ohio State, 11, for Ohio Wesleyan, and 10, for Miami University. A smaller number hope to enter Antioch, Denison, John Carroll, North Western, Oberlin, Ohio University, and Wooster, and one each is planning to enter Baldwin-Wallace, Cleveland College, Fenn College, Spencerian, Hiram, Kenyon, and Lake Erie College.

Carry On!

THIS spring our Student Council can review its year's work with the satisfaction which is the result of genuine accomplishment. The Council, in addition to its routine duties, was instrumental in bringing Shaker nearer than any of its predecessors to a goal of modernity in government that is the objective of all progressive educational institutions. The installation of the honor study halls, budget plan, and honor court has been the most important contribution to our school life in the last few years.

Many important tasks, holdovers from this year, will face the Council next September. Some of these are the furnishing of a much needed recreation room for the winter months and the provision of a more adequate location for the Council or Shakerite office. The latter, if accomplished, would afford both organizations necessary space now denied them, and facilitate a proper management of the Lost and Found.

We expect the Council to set forth auspiciously next fall in continuation of its policy of service founded this year. An earnest consideration of the above suggestions will go far toward making a successful start.

Staff Says Farewell

WHEN Van Caldwell and Miles Ryan, veteran Shakerite editors, graduate next week, they will leave a staff that regrets their departure but at the same time feels the benefit of the constructive effort put forth by them during their terms of service.

Both Van and Miles were news editors before becoming editors-in-chief in 1934 and 1936, respectively.

The work done by these two students has established a precedent worth maintaining in years to come, and the valuable heritage of training and experience that they have left to the staff will prove to be a good foundation for next year's work.

Notes on Our Predecessors

At the swimming meet held at Lake Erie College, Barbara Erisman was one of the twenty-five entries, according to our news sources.

We hear that Caroline Wilson had a role in "Winter's Tale" when it was presented by The Shakespearian Society of Wellesley College.

Ralph McDonnell was host to fifteen freshmen at a party for new members to the Sophomore Vigilante Group of Western Reserve University.

In recent appointments made by the board of publications of Case, Bob Neville was chosen editor of the school's annual.

At Ohio Wesleyan University, Earl Traster is in charge of membership in the new Y. M. C. A. council.

Barnett Taylor was a host when The Advance, student bi-weekly newspaper at Hiram College, gave a dance for the members of Akron and Kent College papers.

Assisting in the speech tournament for high school seniors of Ohio and Pennsylvania were Bill Peter-silge and Brent Baxter, now attending Reserve.

Announcement has been made of the marriages of Maybelle Schwartz and Marie Daerr.

Miss Wickwire has received a letter from the English department of Mt. Holyoke College calling attention to the fine work Polly Jacoby has done in freshman English there, and commending her previous training.

Admit Six to Scribblers' League

The spring tryouts for Scribblers' League brought eleven applicants, from which six were elected to membership: Zelda Urdang, Carol Conners, Virginia Horn, Ann Hersey, Shirley Henn, and Bernard Kraashin.

Wilson Brooks, Shaker graduate, read several of his original works to the Scribblers on Thursday, May 14.

Language Group Holds Tea

The French Club held its final meeting, a tea, last Thursday, May 21. The program consisted of talks given by Sally Free, Jane Hunter, Marvin Frankle, and Gilbert Plass. Marion Rydholm and Jane Watkins played a piano duet. Sally Carter sang three numbers. The entire program, as usual, was conducted in French.

Latin Department Gives Awards

The Summa Cum Laude Latin pin for this year has been awarded to Jerry Dougan. Eta Sigma Phi Latin medals were given to Benita Blair, Jeanne Grant, Clayton Kampp, Jerry Dougan, Joe Tobin, Bernard Kraashin, and Stewart Riddles.

Dr. Morton Slobin CHEERUPODIST

I Am a Senior

I am a senior—you can tell by my looks—
I have arms like De Milo from carrying books;
My face is a blank from too many tests
And I'm easily angered by lower class pests.

I am a senior—so just watch my smoke—
I know all the comebacks and the latest in jokes;
I'll soon be an honored alumnus—'tis so—
But till my departure you can still lend me dough.

He Is a Senior

He is a senior—you can tell by his looks—
He has arms like De Milo from females' books;
His face is a blank—just the same as his tests
And he hates to admit that he never knows best.

He is a senior—so just watch his smoke—
He has worn out his welcome and now he's a joke;
He'll soon be another alumnus—'tis so—
But till his departure we'll still hear him blow.

Seen, Heard, and Talked About

Vacation—summer—vacation—vacation—vacation—our vice president, Hope Griswold, sneaking through the halls in bare feet—she couldn't bare to be scene—those students who simply must point out someone in the chorus "in the third row, second from the left, behind the girl whose arm sticks out of the ear of the boy in front of her"—pupils who hit the hay past 12 p.m. every night kicking about the "late hours" required on the night of the Open House—all those wise-cracks about Bob Colquhoun beating out the "stiff competition" for Student Council presidency—the "your honor" salutations that the Student Court judges put up with—exams.

As this is the time of year that exams are rather popular, it is only appropriate to take a look at a few answers found on recent test papers of Shaker students. The following were to be filled in with the "appropriate" words but here are some of the results (in capitals):

1. The actor played his part although a hard cold made him very h.----- (husky or harsh of voice). HORSE.
2. The divorce case was enlivened by the ----- (statement under oath) of the correspondent. TRUTH.
3. Coney Island is a famous a.----- (pleasurable diversion, entertainment) park. AVERSION.
4. The great powers of the world entered into an a.----- (an alliance of common understanding) to preserve peace. ARMAMENT.

Pleasant Thought

I'm really not always a fool,
But I simply go nuts as a rule
Whenever I hear
That there are in this year
Only seven more days left of school.

Guestar

With the hope of securing some really authoritative remarks about our present day seniors. Yours Truly made the gross error of requesting of Messer French "the difference between the seniors of today and the seniors of his time." He immediately stated that "If the seniors now know as much as we thought we knew then (fifty years ago) they're pretty good." He also adds (regretfully) that in his day he never thought of doing some of the things the seniors of today do. (Wait until the French juniors come tip-toeing in at 5 a. m.)

If

If you have ever smiled at this poor humor
Or maybe laughed at one or two old puns,
If you have followed all this fact and rumor
You'll probably grow up to be a stooge.

If you have read this far in every issue
And floundered through this prose and faulty rhyme,
This column undoubtedly will mishoo (miss you)
Cause this is the end—so long.

Capture Conference Meet For Second Straight Year

Raiders Pile Up 78 1/5 Points to Romp Away With Title and Three Trophies; Eight Records Smashed

By Clarence Heil

Last Friday the Shaker tracksters collected 78 1/5 points to capture the annual conference meet for the second consecutive year. Eight records were set in the competition, which was held at the Bedford High field.

Individual scoring honors went to De Loretto of Bedford, who nosed out Williams of Shaker by three-fourths of a point. Williams set a record in the 220-yard low hurdles, took a first in the 220 dash, and a third in the century for fifteen points.

Feinberg and Sinclair also figured highly in the victory. Feinberg took second in the 100 and 220 and ran on the winning 880 relay team. Sinclair took second in three events and ran on the 880 relay team.

Clark ran a record-breaking mile to share in the honors.

The Raiders won three trophies, one for winning the meet, another for the 880 relay, and the third for the Freshman 880 relay.

Track Team Fifth in Annual Salem Relays

The Shaker track squad journeyed down to Salem Saturday, May 2, and walked off with fifth place in the meet, in which some thirty schools participated, although only eleven Raiders were entered.

Bob Williams and Myron Feinberg both captured firsts in the preliminaries and semi-finals in the 200 low hurdles and 220-yard dash respectively, but neither was able to take first in the finals. Williams was beaten only by Walker, Toledo Scott's state hurdle champion, while Feinberg came in third.

Golf Champion Addresses Girls

Miss Edith Begg, women's city champion in 1933 and runner-up in '34 and '35, spoke to the girls about golf on Tuesday, May 13. This was also awards day. Letters were won by Hope Griswold, Peggy Fox, Sarah Day, Mary Morgan, Ruth Gregg, Mary Elizabeth Smythe, Mary Catherine Graham, Marie Trentennelli, Jane Tremaine, and Betsy Day. Eight hundred and fifty points are needed to win a letter.

Numerals for first year varsity basketball went to Lillian Kovachy, Edith Hull, Mary Day, and Ruth Johnson. Medals for more than one year on the varsity squad went to Jane Tremaine, Mary Richardson, Ruth Gregg, and Betsy Day. Mary Richardson is the only girl to have made the team three times.

Trophies, which are something new in girls' sports, were awarded this year. The seniors carried off the hockey, volleyball, and basketball honors.

To Hold "Shaker Day" June 4

"Shaker Day" at Euclid Beach has been set for Thursday, June 4, when strips of free tickets will be distributed in advance to all students. Each strip contains eight tickets.

Golf Team Wins District Laurels

Crobaugh Leads Linksmen to Championship With 82;
Tennis Hopes High

Led by Sammy Crobaugh's 82, Shaker's linksmen won the district title Friday, May 15, after being nosed out in the Metropolitan League race by Western Reserve Academy and Cleveland Heights. Benson, Herkner, and Jeavons comprised the rest of the team. In the district meet the team as a whole carded a 342.

The golfers are conceded an excellent chance for the interscholastic state title this season.

While the linksmen have been riding high on a crest of success, the tennis team has suffered two straight defeats at the hands of Cleveland Heights and Glenville after opening the season with three consecutive victories. Hopes are still held for the city championship, however, because it is awarded on the number of points each team has, and not on matches won.

The Raiders' singles representatives have been Krashin, Oster, and Prosser. The doubles teams have been Worthington and Newell, and Heil and Hershman.

Seniors Give Prom June 1

The Senior Prom will take place next Monday evening, June 1, at the Pine Ridge Country Club, from nine until one. The Rhythm Club will provide the music. Mr. and Mrs. Patin will serve as chaperons as well as many of the teachers. The committee in charge of arrangements for the prom is as follows: Clarence Heil, Harriet Schell, Harvey Neville, Bob McConnell, Bill Newell, Ned Kuenhold.

Hay and Parma Lose to Raiders

In their initial home meet the Shaker thin-clads swept to their third consecutive victory of the season against John Hay and Parma, May 8. Annexing 13 of 16 first places, Shaker amassed the grand total of 93 points to 43 for Hay, and 31 for Parma.

Myron Feinberg proved to be a main factor in the Raider's victory by winning his usual daily-double, the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, and running on the winning 880-yard relay team. White and Sinclair were also double winners for the day, the former snaring firsts in the shot put and javelin throw, while the latter took a first in both the broad jump and high jump.

Measuring up to his past performances, Gene Clark breezed through to a spectacular victory in the mile, running it in the fast time of four minutes and 45 seconds. McPherson, Shaker's other miler, placed third, just a few paces behind Dunbar of John Hay.

In the 440-yard dash Needham and French continued their private feud, French avenging his defeat at the hands of Needham in the Orange meet, beating Ray to the tape by about two yards.

Other Shaker victors were Gauthier, who won the 120-yard high hurdles; McNab, winner in the discus throw; and Williams, who copped the 200-yard low hurdle event.

THE DUST PAN

SWEPT TOGETHER
By Dave Drummond

This is the final for the Shakerite this year and the last round up for your snooper and the "Dust Pan."

I believe it would be appropriate at this time to look back over the past school year and give you my conception of the favorite couples from October to the present time.

October—John Bruggeman-Elmira Heiss.

November—Phil Knesal-Jane Tremaine.

December—Carrol Prosser-Lucille Istock.

January—Bob Mogg-Lida Kirkpatrick.

February—Herb Ackerman-Betty Stockdale.

March—Bud Van Dusen-Rosanna Brewer.

April—Al Metzger-Jane Ball.

May—Bob Miskell-Dorothy Swan.

June—All for one and one for all.

In picking the couple that has fared the best throughout the year I find a three-way tie between the following combinations: Harris Roberts-Marge Koelling, Bill Kimball-Helen White, Bob Williams-Ada Marshall; and fighting hard for second place: Bob Henshilwood-Peggy Dickey, Dick Meister-Betty Olson, and Bob Wills-Polly Meriam.

Enough for things in the past and on with this week's snooping. From a reliable source (Mr. Harbourt) I learn that Mr. Morris was quite put out over the fact that I gave Mr. Ames the title of Shaker's most eligible bachelor. My apologies to Mr. Morris, but now that Mr. Ames has left these ranks, Morris automatically becomes sole claimant to the title of Shaker's most eligible bachelor. (Fanfare!)

Clarence Heil had a difficult time last week deciding on a birthday present for Priscilla Plumb, now attending the junior high. A new romance may have started when Lloyd Gressle and Sally Carter did some fast stepping at the Chow's dance two weeks ago.

Now for the last flash from Virginia Horn, my girl Thursday, who by the way will be chief snooper next fall.

Black eyes seem to be contagious. This time it was Mary Ann Kwis who received hers via Bill Ripley. The breaking up of Lester Mitchell and Adele Allison followed the Knesal-

Shaker Highlights and Shadows

Linn Will Be Noted Maestro

Roy Linn—Born February 12, 1918. Has attended Shaker schools since kindergarten and recently has spent his summers in a camp in Northern Michigan and in Europe. Intends to take up biological science and hopes some day to be the leader of a famous dance orchestra. Plans to go either to Colgate or to Allegheny College. Is stage manager this year.

He Bunked With Rotten Eggs

Bob Bingham—Born April 26, 1918. Has gone to Shaker since kindergarten. Plans to go to Amherst. Then study law at Yale or Harvard. Likes all sports. Pet diversion—golf. 1935 State Scholastic Champion. Likes to watch wrestling matches. Is a member of the National Honor Society and editor of the 1936 Gristmill. Plans to go to California this summer. Two events he will never forget: the two-weeks' trip to Lake Timagami and the Canadian North Woods and the trip taken by the golf team to Columbus for the state meet, sleeping that night in a fraternity house filled with rotten eggs after the annual Ohio State Frosh-Soph egg-tomato fight.

Tender-aged Genius, Herb

Herbert Goodman—March 25, 1919, the date Herb Goodman claims his birth date. First came to Shaker from Roxboro Junior High, January 23, 1933. Although a very modest individual, says that as far back as he can remember he has always been a genius. However, admits that he was dumb (!!!). Wants to be a lawyer or a professor and has been accepted at Harvard. Started Latin last September and now takes Virgil—typical of the Goodman genius. Plays a wicked game of ping-pong and pool, and is a wicked dancer—also good at crap. At 12 edited a magazine called "The Bunk of the Month" which had subscribers all over the world. Because of this, his picture appeared in the paper. By the way, he is a lily-livered pacifist.

Tremaine fracas. Elaine Newcomb has been seen lately with Chuck Sharp.

Came Here to Meet Husband

Irene Kennel—Born April 22, 1918. Entered Shaker from Glenville High in her junior year. Didn't like it at first, but is fond of it now, as she claims she met her future husband here. Was hit by a car and almost killed at the age of nine. Is a member of the National Honor Society and plans to go to Connecticut College, where she will room with Carol Vogt. After graduating she plans to manage a public nursery until she gets married and manages her own.

He Just Happened Along

Lloyd Gressle—Happened on the 13th of June, 1918. Attended Miles Standish School first and had his mouth taped for talking too much. He still doesn't know enough to keep it shut. Was boy soprano soloist of a local choir for four years. He likes practically all sports and enjoys the political mud-slinging. He has been admitted to Oberlin College. As yet he knows not whither—after college.

Peggy Hopes to Gain Loss

Peggy Dickey—First kicked on May 12, 1918. Started in school at Shaker. Left for Atlantic City when in the fifth grade and returned to Shaker in the tenth. Is fond of playing hockey. Spends her summers at Winona Lake, Indiana. Plans to attend William and Mary College, then wants to be an actuary (figure it out yourself). Her main ambition is to lose fifteen pounds.

Thanks, Virginia, and good luck on next year's column!

Just a few more glances around school and I'll call a halt to this foolishness. Johnny French and Mary Morgan are always together these days and incidentally their favorite song is "Lost." Phil Astry has shown interest in Thalia Carter of late and I look for further developments.

So ends my eleventh and last column. I have received a great deal of enjoyment in bringing you this column and I hope anyone whom I have possibly offended will pardon me. That's all there is, so I'll say goodbye, until we meet again.

Shakerite Offers Additional Issue

As a fitting climax to a most successful year, the Shakerite offers a final issue free of charge to purchasers of Budget Books. As an attempt to cooperate to the utmost with the Student Council, the staff presents this sixth issue, a graduation issue, in addition to the five promised by the budget.

The Shakerite is also proud of the fact that during the past six months, several of the staff members have received recognition by having their work printed in the Cleveland News.

Van Caldwell, former editor, had a story accepted by the Amateur Journalist column. A poem of Stewart Riddles' first printed in the Shakerite, was later reprinted in the News.

Several weeks ago Miles Ryan represented the Shakerite in a radio broadcast over WGAR.

April 24, the editors, Miles Ryan, Van Caldwell, Jeanette Gunn, and Stewart Riddles, edited the High School Column in the News.

In an attempt to make the paper better technically, the Shakerite joined the Hi-Press Association.

New Book Store Attendant

Glad Harrison is Shaker's new book store attendant, replacing Ted Hills, long a familiar figure here.

Mr. Harrison has been associated with the school board for some time. He has worked for the last six years at the school board warehouse.
